Another European Championship is ready to kick off, this time with a major modification: the venue will be Lovosice, Czech Republic, from 10th to 12th August 2018.

The closing date for applications is 30th June 2018.

The awards ceremony will take place immediately after the race in the presence of the referees. That will allow significant time savings and ensure a smooth run of the competition. The awards ceremony in the disciplines Biathlon and Triathlon and Strongestman/woman will take place for all the participants on Saturday in the evening. The venue of the award ceremony will be announced. The certificates to be issued in the late afternoon on every competition day after the competition.

The range of disciplines is listed in the attached registration form.

This year we will have a T-shirt for each participant. Please indicate your size. Due to lack of time, the payments cannot be confirmed individually to everyone. Just in case, please bring a proof of your payment with you.

Accommodation booking is possible directly at Jaroslav Smělý, or on an individual basis.

We attach all the necessary information.

We wish everyone a great European Championship at the unusual venue and we are looking forward to your participation.
